

CASEY ALLEN

Hey there! I am Casey Allen.

I was born and raised in Arizona. A little bit about me...

- I love the desert and I love the people of Arizona.
- I have a degree from the University of Arizona in Family studies and Human Development by the grace of God.
- I love athletic expressions and outlets.

I'm passionate about Arizona, the children who feel forgotten and uninspired, grownups who feel invisible, people in social work and first responders of every type who are true heroes every day.

It's such a pleasure to meet you!
